

JEFF CIVILICO BIO

From a 10-year-old kid doing shows in the kitchen for his “Gram” to becoming a 3-time “Best of Las Vegas” winner, Jeff Civilico has always had a heart to connect with people. He wants to make you laugh, to make you smile, to make you cheer! Jeff wants you to leave lighter and brighter, taking a ripple of happiness with you. Jeff’s genuine love for performing, his business savvy and his signature grit proved to be a winning combination— heralded as the youngest Producer/Headliner in Las Vegas, named “Entertainer of the Year” and voted “Best of Las Vegas” 3 years in a row.

After a decade’s success with his Vegas residency, Jeff knew it was time to expand his platform, reach, and impact. He felt the need to move beyond performing 6 nights a week (for 10 years!) to focus more on developing his connection and communication skills as a host personality, facilitator, and keynote speaker.

And as one of the busiest speakers on the circuit today, his message and approach are clearly resonating! Jeff was recently conferred by the National Speakers Association with the “Certified Speaking Professional” (CSP) credential, a designation held by only 1.5% of speakers worldwide. And he is one of the youngest ever inductees into the National Speakers Association’s “Speaker Hall of Fame.” The Council of Peers Award for Excellence (CPAE) is a lifetime award for speaking excellence and professionalism.

Jeff believes in maximizing one’s utility through action, and he lives by example. He consistently creates and develops projects to help others, which as a byproduct gives his life deeper purpose and meaning. His nonprofit Win Win Charity, his Cisco Sound scholarships, and his most recent venture “Laughter without Borders,” a philanthropic travel show, are all shining examples of his impact in action.

Jeff believes that we all put positive ripples out into the world that expand well beyond our knowledge and awareness... and he’s on a mission to help you see that too!
