

Tim Gabrielson Testimonials

"When we began planning our 2013 Snap Fitness International Convention, we were faced with the challenge of finding a speaker who could engage our group right off the bat, and help raise the energy level for the event as a whole.

During past conventions, our group has proven to be somewhat quiet and reserved at the beginning of the event and we knew we needed a speaker who was high-energy, entertaining and able to bring the group out of their shell. We couldn't have asked for a better choice than Tim Gabrielson.

Tim is such a talented performer, and has an ability to connect with his audience like no other speaker we've ever had. His combination of comedy, magic and positive message had our group laughing and listening from the second he hit the stage. For the rest of the event, you could hear our attendees talking about how great his performance was, and how it set the tone for a tremendously successful week.

I would recommend Tim for groups of any size or background, as he does a great job of understanding your needs for the event. He is truly the best speaker we've ever had, and I would love to have him back for another of our conventions in the future."

Bob Reid, NewSouth Coalition of Burger King Franchisees

"Thank you Tim, for the perfect kick off presentation for our recent Annual Convention. Your magic was great. But more than that, your timing and sense of humor were fantastic. I frequently glanced around the room during the presentation, and the attendees were very focused on everything you said and did. They were definitely having a great time. Two days later the folks were still talking about your presentation. Thank you for providing such an upbeat, funny start for the Convention."

Steven C. Vermillion

"Tim not only had the room rolling with laughter the entire hour, but he related the importance of humor in our everyday work."

“I want to officially thank you for your work at our Annual Meeting. Aside from the fact that you were “off the charts funny,” I most appreciated the flexibility and professionalism you showed during the planning phase. I can imagine for an entertainer that corporate events can be a bit tricky. Thank you for the time and attention you took in preparing for our event.”

“Based on the feedback of almost 1000 surveys that we received after the event, you were a resounding success! Thank you for your top notch customer service. We will definitely be calling on you again. In fact, next year’s planning committee is already wondering how they are going to top our event! We couldn’t ask for a bigger compliment and we realize that it was in large part to your talent!”
