

David Wilk Client Testimonials

"Everyone looks forward to your latest and greatest "stunt" for our annual conventions; sometimes I'm jealous that you are more popular than I am! There is no question that our conventions are much more enjoyable with you as our host."

Gordon B. Logan, Found & President, Sport Clips, Inc.

"Enter David Wilk. Words on paper cannot explain or portray the feelings each and every person had after David had been on stage. I watched him rehearse with our opening act the day before he was due to walk out on to the big stage in front everyone. Needless, to say my worries were put to rest. There was not a doubt in my mind this was our guy. This was what we needed for our event."

Saronna Maldonado, CMP, Director of Events, Sport Clips, Inc.

"As an emcee, David Wilk is my go to. After working with him on the American Express Meetings & Events signature 1200 person INTER[action] event for 6 years, I have come to know and trust Dave. He is always prepared, high energy and engaging, and incredibly creative. He literally got a standing ovation from our attendees when he returned for his second year. David is the go-to person you want in your corner and on your stage at your event."

Stephanie Harris, President, The Incentive Research Foundation, American Express

"What is particularly impressive and especially appreciated is your talent to engage every person in the audience so that by the end of your presentation you had each one of us understanding and applying the power of "Yes...and!"

Ray Smilor, PhD, VP, USASBE, TCU Neeley School of Business

"David Wilk has been performing for Fiserv and its business lines for more than ten years, applying his sharp wit and comedic talent to help our company convey key business points to our clients and employees in an engaging, lighthearted manner."

Sara L. Brooks, Chief Strategy Officer, Fiserv
