

David Wilk Speaker Bio

David Wilk is a Founding Member of the Four Day Weekend Comedy Theater. Born in Tulsa OK, Dave is a graduate of the Second City Conservatory in Chicago.

In addition to having performed more than 6,500 live shows, Dave also travels nationally and internationally emceeing and keynote speaking for corporate clients. His client list reads like a "who's who" of the fortune 500.

Dave and Four Day Weekend recently were invited to be a Keynote Presenter at the United States Congress Democratic Caucus Issues Conference in Cambridge, MD. They received a standing ovation and met President Barack Obama. Always eager to be equal and fair, later that year, he and Four Day shared the stage with former President George W. Bush in Las Vegas.

Dave and Four Day Weekend were given a great honor when Mayor Mike Moncrief presented them the Key to the City of Fort Worth for being "Fort Worth's Greatest Ambassadors". In the same year, Four Day Weekend was named "Small Business of the Year" by the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce.

Dave and his 4day colleagues were thrilled to have headlined an Armed Forces Entertainment Tour with shows in England, Belgium, Kosovo, The Netherlands and Germany.

David was recently named "Entrepreneur in Residence" at TCU's Neely School of Business sharing their "Yes, And" philosophy and how it applies to business.

Dave and his Four Day Weekend colleagues are authors of the new book, "Happy Accidents, the Transformative Power of Yes, And At Work and In Life", which became a National Bestseller in its first week.

In 2018 Dave and his 4day colleagues were awarded a Lifetime Achievement Award for Entrepreneurship from NACCE, The National Association of Community College Entrepreneurship.
