

Rachel DeAlto - Introduction

(To be read by the person introducing Rachel at your event)

We have a pretty good feeling our speaker today is someone you can all relate to... in fact, that's exactly why she's here. She is a communication and relatability expert, media personality, and author of the book, Relatable. She has appeared as an expert on Lifetime Television's Married at First Sight, and as a guest on over 200 national media outlets. She's on a mission to connect people to their most powerful resource – each other. We can't think of a better way to boost your results today than with all of her energy and tools...

Please help me welcome... Rachel DeAlto!
