"Scott, thank you so much for contributing to the success of AAMI eXchange. Your energy lifted the whole event and our attendees loved it! Comedy really is the best medicine and having the opportunity to laugh and come together as a community was so refreshing! The way you took the time to learn about our industry and our stakeholders and to work our attendees into your keynote was the icing on the cake! Thank you!"

"We were absolutely thrilled with Scott Bloom's comedic keynote at our NCHEA Spring Seminar. From the moment he took the stage, it was evident that he had put in the effort to truly understand our organization, seamlessly incorporating relevant themes and inside jokes into his performance. What truly set Scott apart was his interactive approach. Bringing some of our attendees on stage and encouraging audience participation created an electric atmosphere that kept everyone engaged and entertained throughout. It was exactly the unique and lively kickoff we were looking for, setting the perfect tone for the rest of our event. The feedback from our attendees speaks volumes—our speaker evaluation scores were through the roof! Scott's blend of humor, insight, and audience interaction left a lasting impression on everyone present. We couldn't have asked for a better start to our seminar, and we wholeheartedly recommend Scott Bloom to anyone seeking a dynamic and unforgettable keynote speaker."

“I have had the privilege of watching Scott perform numerous times with different organizations. I am always amazed at how he remembers every winner’s name, all the acronyms within the organization, and more importantly how it ties into the overall mission statement that your management team wants to send with a “comedic” touch . I highly recommend Scott as a speaker.”

-Morris Churchill, SVP, HSBC

“Scott, I wanted to let you know how thankful I am that you were able to once again be at our Leadership Club conference. I continue to get comments some weeks later about how great the event was and how much they really liked your presentation. “You have an amazing talent of connecting with the audience with your humor (and unbelievably memorizing every winner’s name!!) and of course your comments about winning and creating powerful connections were spot on to our themes this year.“

Pablo Sanchez, Head of Wealth Management, HSBC

“Scott Bloom was our dinner speaker for our global sales conference. Having an outside entertainer was quite a departure from any previous sales conference in our 109-year history, so it was a new experience for those of us doing the planning. Any anxieties we were feeling about trying something new went away within minutes of Scott starting since he was a huge hit! All the feedback was extremely positive. Scott did his homework gathering information on our company, industry, competitors and some fun details on the leadership team. Scott did a great job and made all of us that planned the event look brilliant! We highly recommend Scott as a meeting entertainer and MC, and truly enjoyed the entire experience.”

Testimonials

“I was very impressed with Scott’s research of our organization. He says he not only wants to walk the walk, but also talk the talk of our company – and he was one of us for the evening. He made our nurses feel special, he made our entire audience laugh and smile, and he interacted with a large group of people that set the tone for a more intimate evening. He was a professional, but also relatable. I enjoyed his ability to understand who we are as an organization and how we function. He did his research and was on point with his message. He is a great speaker, a fun entertainer and I know our team appreciated his humor and message for us.”

Blake Bard, Chief Development Officer Freeman Health System

“We were thrilled to have Scott back as the emcee for our awards dinner again this year. His energy, enthusiasm and ability to engage the audience is truly remarkable. Our executives have a strong comfort level with the support and structure he brings to the program and attendees look forward to the entertainment he adds to the evening. The games he incorporated added a fun and interactive element that everyone enjoyed- most were yelling answers from their seats and many ran to the stage when he asked for volunteers. The leadership team even commented that he continues to top himself and raise the bar every year. Highly recommended for any event needing a dynamic and engaging emcee!”

Michelle Mallon, Events Director, Citizens
